

Welcome to Shabbat Services
June 15, 2007
This week's Torah portion is Korach
Numbers 16:1 – 18:32

This portion begins on page 639 of the Hertz Bible.

Parashat Korach tells of the rebellion of Korah, Dathan, Abiram, and On against the leadership of Moses and Aaron. With 250 respected leaders of the community, they accuse Moses and Aaron of acting “holier” than the other Israelites. Hearing their complaint, Moses instructs them that God will demonstrate who is to be trusted as leader of the community. The next morning the leaders of the rebellion and their followers are punished. God threatens to destroy the entire people, but Moses orders Aaron to place an offering on the altar, which is meant to save the people from harm. Moses then organizes the priesthood to be headed by Aaron and his descendants.
